

News Release
April 3, 2006
Kentucky Bank
Contact: Brenda Bragonier

Kentucky Bank Announces Commercial Lender

Ken DeVasher has been named Vice President, Commercial Lender for the Kentucky Bank's Harrison and Scott county offices. Ken, who has been with the bank for nine years, has most recently served as Kentucky Bank's Regional Manager in Harrison County. He has worked in the financial business for over a decade with an emphasis on Agricultural lending, although he is well versed in all types of financial services. Ken enjoys the complexity and challenges of Commercial lending. "I appreciate the support Harrison County has shown me in the past, and I will continue working in the community." Ken added "Helping my customers take advantage of the opportunities in their lives, is what makes Commercial lending exciting."

Kentucky Bank has headquarters in Paris with offices in six other communities: Winchester, Georgetown, Versailles, Nicholasville, Cynthiana and North Middletown.