

News Release
April 3, 2006
Kentucky Bank
Contact: Brenda Bragonier

Kentucky Bank Announces a New Regional Manager

David Foster has been named Vice President, Regional Manager for Kentucky Bank's Harrison County offices. David, who has been with the bank for five years, has most recently served as Kentucky Bank's Commercial lender in Woodford, Scott and Jessamine Counties. He has worked in the financial business for over 25 years with an emphasis on Agricultural lending, although he is well versed in all types of financial services. In his new role, he will be focusing on serving Harrison County exclusively.

David is committed to helping the bank serve Harrison County. With two locations in this region, the bank has 29 employees and $80 million in assets. David's office is located in the US 27 banking center.

Ken DeVasher, Vice President, Regional Manager for the last seven years has moved to the position of Commercial lender for Kentucky Bank. Harrison County will still be his home office, although he will be traveling to other communities.

Kentucky Bank has headquarters in Paris with offices in six other communities: Winchester, Wilmore, Georgetown, Versailles, Nicholasville, Cynthiana and North Middletown.