Kentucky Bank Adds New Consultants to its Financial Services Team

Expanded team to provide financial planning services to broader client base

Paris, KY (September 25, 2006) –Expanding the scope of its current financial product and service offering in order to better serve their customers, Kentucky Bank has recently added two new members to its financial services team — Rebecca Combs and James Gray, as licensed Financial Consultants.

Gray is a native of Cynthiana and a graduate of Georgetown College with a BA in Business Administration. He joined Kentucky bank in 2005. For the past 15 years, James has been working within the insurance and financial services industry. James also serves as the Area Chairman for Ducks Unlimited and coaches Upward basketball.

Combs is also a native of Cynthiana, and graduated Summa Cum Laude from Sullivan University with a BSBA in Finance and Management. She is also a President's Cup recipient. Combs has been with Kentucky Bank for five years.

Through Kentucky Bank's partnership with UVEST Financial Services, their customers have access to a wide variety of financial products and services, including professional money management, financial planning, stocks, bonds, mutual funds, annuities, IRAs, life insurance, long term care and much more.

“James and Rebecca have strong customer service orientations - we believe their background and experience will allow us to better serve our customers. Whether you're planning for your children's education or a financially secure retirement, we understand the vital importance of tailoring financial products and insurance services to meet the needs and wants of our customers. That is what true financial planning is all about—offering the most sensible alternatives especially designed to help our customers reach their financial goals.” said Clark Nyberg, Director of Wealth Management at Kentucky Bank..

Gray added, “It’s a pleasure to be back in touch with Customers on a daily basis. Helping our Customers protect what they’ve worked for and partnering with them to realize their dreams is the heart of this business. Sending children to college, living comfortably in retirement and protecting the family business – those ideals are important to everyone and we help make them a reality.”

The financial services team, which has an office in the Kentucky Bank branch in Georgetown and Cynthiana, is available by appointment to provide clients with personalized and professional financial guidance. Appointments for a free portfolio review can be made through any branch office.

Kentucky Bank has headquarters in Paris with offices in nine other communities: Cynthiana, Georgetown, Morehead, Nicholasville, North Middletown, and Sandy Hook Versailles, Wilmore, Winchester.

UVEST and Kentucky Bank are independent entities. Investment products are not FDIC insured, not bank guaranteed, and may lose value.
